● ABOUT ME

⊙ I studied Japanese for 2 years in Kyoto and continued my studies in IT web development at Senmongakkou in Osaka for 2 years, with a focus on web development and web design.

⊙ Additionally, I have been independently continuing my studies in web development through structured roadmaps from roadmap.sh and various courses on platforms such as Coursera, Udemy, Hackerrank, edX, freeCodeCamp, Codecademy, and Skillup. I am currently seeking job experience to complement my studies and facilitate my professional growth.
